Cards final home game Friday

Business parking again before board

Have chance for second place

The Cardinals will play their final home game of the current conference schedule this Friday night when they are hosts to the Lake Forest Scouts.

Although the Scouts are in last place without a chance to emerge from the cellar and the Cardinals are in third with a chance for second, the game promises to be close and probably bitterly fought. Arlington must win this one and then beat Libertyville next week to take second place, while Lake Forest will be playing the string out in hopes of getting their first and only victory of the season. Arlington's Green Tornadoes, who have played improved ball in recent weeks, will be trying with fair prospects to haul down the junior varsity team from Lake Forest in the first game of the evening.

The Cardinals have two weeks to rebound from their recent slump before going into the regional tournament at Dundee. The peculiarities of Illinois tournament play do not require all schools to start their state title campaign at the same time. Arlington will play the runner-up from the Hebron tournament, where Hebron and McHenry were seeded as the two strongest teams. If Arlington should win their first game, they will play the winner of the Dundee-Antioch tilt, with the survivor going into the championship game of the regional tournament.

Are you a saboteur?

The spreading of false rumors regarding Red Cross Civilian Defense and all activities of the government, in its war effort is in reality an act of sabotage. Some rumors of that nature have been circulated about Arlington Heights. The Herald asks that any person hearing rumors of a derogatory nature report them to the editor, who will make an attempt to run them down and publish the truth.

Among recent stories about Arlington Heights is one that reports the government, Red Cross or some other organization is paying the expenses of local volunteer workers. Rent for quarters used, etc. Such reports are false. People repeating them are nothing better than a saboteur.

It may not be generally known that members of the local selective service board, the examining physicians, appeal agent, and advisory board serve without pay of any kind, and pay their own travel expenses.

National Chairman Norman H. Davis issued the following statement concerning the fundamental and traditional policy of the Red Cross: "It always has been, and now is the definite policy and instructions of the Red Cross, that no charge shall ever be made to any service man for any Red Cross articles or service which is furnished from the funds or supplies contributed to the Red Cross."

Here is an excerpt from Bassman's column "Wit and Wit," Riverside News of Jan. 22, 1942: "Several times during the past week we, because of service in World War I, have been asked what our experiences were with the Red Cross. Resulting conversation revealed that ex-service men are supposed to be saying that 'the Red Cross charged too much for what it gave out during the first World War.' The statement is being repeated by persons, who apparently are trying to justify their not giving to the Red Cross War fund now being collected.

"No World War veteran has yet made such a statement to us, and no repeater of that statement has been able to supply us with the name of a veteran who has."

"From our own experience we know of no occasion when the Red Cross sold anything to men in the service. There were service groups that operated canteens and recreation units and sold candy, cigarettes, chocolate, cookies and other articles to soldiers. One of these groups has been criticized for the rigidity of its selling policies. But the Red Cross has no connection with it."

"It is the privilege of anyone to refuse making a contribution to the Red Cross War Fund, but to slander the organization while trying to evade the obligation can rightly be termed sabotage. Anyone making charges against the Red Cross, or any other war service organization, should be certain that he knows the facts before repeating parrot-like what someone has told him."

Methodist church features special Lenten programs

David C. Cook to speak Sunday

The Methodist church is announcing a series of outstanding programs for the Lenten season, as an aid in this hour that tests men's souls and moral fiber.

Through the endeavors of Rev. Milo Vondracek pastor of the church, the services of several eminent and widely known speakers have been procured for these programs which are open to the general public.

On successive Wednesday evenings during Lent these speakers of note will address themselves on the topic "The Challenge of the Church Today" as seen by a Layman, Foreign Missionary, church official and a church educator.

Layman's night was observed on Wednesday evening this week, when members and friends of the church gathered at 6:30 p. m. for a pot luck supper and later heard Mr. H. P. Scott, a prominent speaker and financial director of the Wesley foundation and the Methodist Student Center at the University of Illinois, talk.

David C. Cook III, of Elgin, a prominent layman of the Methodist church and the largest independent publisher of religious periodicals in the World will speak at 11 a. m. on Sunday morning, Layman's Sunday.

Mr. Cook, who at 28 is president of the world's largest concern catering exclusively to Sunday schools and their needs, brings to his task a vigorous mind, a strong Christian faith and an alertness to the moral and spiritual problems of the day, according to those who have contacts with publications.

Through the presses of his firm flow annually one hundred million copies of religious publications. The company has its own sub post office and ships from six to ten tons of Sunday school literature daily. It serves more than 60,000 Sunday schools the world around. Its material non-sectarian is read by every color and race.

Mr. Cook, one of America's youngest executives of big business will talk on "The Challenge of the Church today as seen by a Layman." The American Legion Auxiliary will present an American flag to the church at 6:30 p. m. service. Mrs. A. C. Rector, Americanism chairman of the Auxiliary, will make the presentation. Just returned from India and the area about Rangoon, is Dr. James E. McDowd, who will speak on Wednesday, Feb. 25th, at 7:30 p. m. in the Methodist church.

Dr. McDowd, who has done missionary work in India and the western Pacific areas for ten years will have with him several thousand feet of interesting film, and in his talk on "The Challenge of the Church as seen by a Missionary" will deal with the international situation.

Dr. McDowd's talk will follow a pot luck supper at 6:30 p. m. Friends and members are invited. Each family will provide a covered dish, and sandwiches, their own dishes and silver. The address will start at 7:30 p. m. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Other interesting speakers will follow on consecutive Wednesday evenings during the Lenten season, when on March 11th, Dr. John A. Schneider will speak on "The Challenge of the Church as seen by a church official."

Rev. Richard Miller, religious education director will speak on Thursday, March 19th, on "The Challenge of the Church as seen by a Church Educator." and on March 25th, Miss Fay Ware, girls' worker and community worker will speak on "The Challenge of the Church as seen by a Church Social Worker."

Rev. Vondracek will speak on the remaining Sundays during Lent on the theme "Renewing Life" and all who have heard this earnest young minister are inspired with his spiritual vision and helpful messages.

Buys new well pump, pays race track $3,000 for water

Priorities or no priorities, Arlington Heights needs the new pump that the board ordered a week ago for the new well. If the O. P. M. will consider the need one of maintenance, there is a possibility of getting the pump. Otherwise Arlington has a deep hole in the ground, an ample supply of water 1500 feet down and no way to get the water into the mains. The pump will cost $3,000. With low consumption and the repair of the north side pump—there is no immediate emergency, but Arlington will need that water very much before many months.

The village board at its meeting Monday night placed its O. K. 1942 fishing licenses and Mr. Davis has also placed a supply at the Wilke Jewelry Shop.

Elk Grove youth nabbed as U. S. enemy

Airport films discovered to be amateur hobby

Northwest Cook county had a "taste" of espionage Friday that appeared to be the real thing. Scores of squad cars, from the FBI office, state and county and various municipalities flocked to south State rd., Arlington Heights, following the discovery by Officer Elmer Karstens of the "wanted" car. The driver, Raymond Tagge, whose home is in Elk Grove forest preserve, was taken into custody by the county police and with his camera and plates were turned over to the FBI for a five hour grilling. Raymond, who is a student in the local high school was released. It was just a case of an overzealous amateur photographer, but two things were accomplished.

Guards at the Curtis airfield were shown to be negligent and the value of police broadcast was again demonstrated in a big way, with Officer Karstens receiving the major credit for the early apprehension of the culprit—though he was innocent.

The watchman at the observation tower of Curtis field through his glasses saw Tagge take the pictures and secured the license number of the car. The information was broadcast over county and state radios. Karstens received the message at 4:10. An hour later he discovered the car, with a flat tire, near the Witt service station on south State road. He immediately notified the county police and, recognizing the car, gave the name and address of the owner. Within a few minutes a county squad car cruising on Higgins rd. was at the Tagge home and had taken Raymond and his camera into custody. The car was guarded all night by county police until the FBI could have its finger-printing laboratory on the scene when prints were taken.

Tagge was released when the government men were convinced that he was not a spy, and had no connections with any espionage ring. It was an incident of preparedness which was lacking at Pearl Harbor.

Former Arlington resident, speaker at Men's club

Judge George Quilici will be the speaker at the regular monthly dinner meeting of the First Presbyterian Men's club, Tuesday evening, February 24, at 6:30 p. m. His subject will be "Democracy and the Courts."

Judge Quilici spent some years of his youth in our city, at which time his father operated an ice cream parlor in the Gieske building, now part of the Winkelman Tire & Battery Shop.

Upon the family's return to Chicago, Judge Quilici attended the University of Chicago and afterward, law school. After his admission to the bar in Illinois he served both as a corporation and also attorney for labor and established a very good record.

He was elected to the Municipal Court of Cook county, serving on the bench in the city hall and also at the South State station branch where he gained a reputation in his handling of cases concerning juvenile delinquency. He is at present the youngest sitting judge in Cook county, if not in the state, and is at present presiding in "motions court."

Judge Quilici has addressed several clubs and societies on this subject of present day interest and has been commended very favorably by those bodies.

The club extends a cordial invitation to all men of the community to hear this speaker.

For reservations be sure to call Arlington Heights 647-R, before Sunday night.

Lions appoint committee to find Pet Milk location

Arlington Heights has a chance for the Pet Milk plant. At least members of the Lions club are confident that with a good location, the scales can be tipped in favor of this community's proposed Des Plaines and Franklin Park. A special committee of N. M. Latoff and J. D. Plentie was appointed at Tuesday night's meeting to find the location and to contact the company.

Perhaps Eastern Airlines have been told about the growing interest on the part of some of the Arlington club in deep sea fishing. Anyway they sent a representative and movies to the meeting Tuesday night when pictures were shown and details given on how easy it is to fly to Florida for deep sea fishing.

Lutheran Men's club to observe 10th anniversary

New Registrants total 1849 men

The new draft registration on Monday was easily handled through-out district one, comprising the six northwest townships. The only excitement was the worries of many registrants that their supply of registration cards were not sufficient. Draft headquarters dispatched reserve supplies to all asking for them and when the registration was over, there were plenty of cards remaining.

The Local Selective Service Board, Cook County No. 1, wishes to express its appreciation to the 91 patriotic citizens of this area who contributed their time and efforts during the recent registration, also to the various organizations who granted the use of their premises for registration points.

The total registration of people residing in the district was 1849. Registration was accepted from 129 men whose homes are outside the district. Local registrations are as follows:

Arlington Heights	629
Schaumburg	65
Palatine	328
Wheeling	93
Barlett	129
Barrington	242
St. Mary's	42
Mt. Prospect	321
Total	1849

Another call has been received by the local board and notices will be mailed this week to the men who are expected to report for army service.

Palatine starts foreclosures in three subs

The village of Palatine has started tax foreclosure suits against the property in three east side subdivisions, Palatine Manor, the Northwest highway addition and Merrills Home Addition.

All of these subdivisions are in the east part of the village, east of the Northwest highway. The necessary proceedings will take considerable time and final disposition will probably not be settled for several months.

Trade and Civic hold annual meeting this evening

Members of Arlington Trade and Civic Association will elect members of the board of directors and hear annual reports at the annual meeting of that organization this Thursday evening. They will meet in the village hall at eight o'clock. Following the business session there will be a social hour with refreshments.

The annual banquet last Thursday evening was attended by over 150 persons. The ladies of St. James church served an excellent dinner. There was good entertainment and Thomas E. Lowery, assistant advertising manager of the Chicago Daily News, gave a fine talk that was pertinent to the situation that the United States faces today. He feels that the present war was premeditated by the dictators, years ago, and that the conquering of this country has been the main motive behind their actions the last five years.

With Les Griffith at the piano and Geo. Schimming as song leader, the program started off with a bang. The entertainers comprised a comedian, a comedy juggler, and a Philippine singer.

The Trade and Civic banquet and entertainment only comes once a year, but it's worth a member's wife put it, "it's worth waiting for."

Post office to close Monday

The Post Office Department will observe February 23 as Washington's birthday. Only special delivery mail will be delivered. Only outgoing mail closes at 8:20 a. m., any mail dropped after that leaving the following morning. There will be no window service. The lobby will be open from 8 a. m. to 10 a. m. for patrons having lock boxes.

Elk Grove defense meeting Tuesday

The Elk Grove defense group will meet Tuesday evening at the Elk Grove school, Touhy and Higgins rd. at 8 p. m. to discuss civilian defense for the rural areas.

Financial drive to reach households, wage earners

Arlington Heights Defense Council needs cash. It is going to ask every householder and every wage earner to contribute to the fund that will enable the local defense body to maintain its various activities.

"Civilian Defense is a local project operated for the protection of the lives and property of local persons," said Chairman Homer Byrd in a brief address to the first meeting of the civilian defense finance committee last Friday night. "This work is organized on a national scale," went on Mr. Byrd, "but it is operated and will have to be supported entirely by local people."

Acting on this advice the finance committee adopted a program of fund-raising designed to meet all estimated needs of the Arlington Heights civilian defense program for the present year of the war. Only a rough estimate of these needs can be made at this time because of lack of experience with the problems to be encountered. With hundreds of volunteer workers requiring equipment of various kinds, with printing, postage, and office materials to be provided, and with the probability of a highly-organized rationing program to be maintained, it was plain to the committee that a considerable fund must be raised. Money Byrd, marked for the purchase and distribution of such equipment as gas masks and other similar items.

The plan worked out by Chairman Nicholas Latoff's Finance committee of about thirty representative citizens of Arlington Heights is based on the idea that every family and every property holder will receive a business card having placed in the business card a contribution to the fund. The costs should therefore be distributed among all. It involves a canvass of every household, every business and professional person, and of every organization in Arlington Heights. The committee estimated that a minimum contribution of one dollar would be asked and that larger contributions from those having places of business or large property holdings to protect should be expected. "Savers and others who room in Arlington Heights but do not maintain households would be expected to contribute on the same basis as families. All organizations will be asked for such contributions as their size and finances justify. The collection of old newspapers, magazines, and cardboard, temporarily halted pending organization of the Finance committee's work will be resumed in the near future.

All funds raised for civilian defense will be handled according to standard business practices so that they can be accounted for at any time. Disbursement must be approved by the chairman of the committee making the expenditure. Checks will be signed by the treasurer of the Civilian Defense Council and countersigned by chairman Latoff.

In the event of victory before all funds are expended, it was recommended by the committee that remaining funds should be distributed to the churches in direct proportion to their membership.

It is expected that organization of the canvass will be completed in time to begin the drive on March 2 and complete it by March 14. Stickers bearing the Civilian Defense emblem will be provided so that all who contribute may display them. A sticker will also be furnished to each home which cooperates in the collection of newspapers, so that such families will not be frequently disturbed by junk dealers and others collecting paper.

500 auto owners get under the wire in purchase of tags

The sale of auto vehicle tags in Arlington Heights during January was the heaviest in years and there were 500 others who just got under the wire by purchasing their tags the early part of February before the police department became active in enforcing the recent order of the board that arrest slips be issued for all cars without 1942 stickers. The receipts during the closing days of January and the early part of February were over $2,000.

Lutheran Child Welfare meeting

The Northwest branch of the Lutheran Child Welfare Auxiliary which includes Mt. Prospect, Des Plaines, Arlington Heights and Palatine, will meet at the Arlington Heights Lutheran school on Tuesday, February 24. Smorgasbord will be served at 1 o'clock with the business meeting following.

Edward A. Glaeser named to advisory committee, Dist. 1

Mr. Paul G. Armstrong, head of the selective service board, announces the appointment of Mr. Edward A. Glaeser to advisory committee for district number one. The appointment was made upon the recommendation of the Chicago Bar Association.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES
"Soul" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, February 15th.

The Golden Text was, "Lo, this is our God; we have waited for him, and he will save us: this is the Lord; we have waited for him, he will be glad and rejoice in his salvation" (Isaiah 25: 9).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "Why art thou cast down, O my soul? and why art thou disquieted within me?
hope thou in God: for I shall yet praise him, who is the health of my countenance, and my God" (Ps. 42: 11).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy:
"If the five corporeal senses were the medium through which to understand God, then palsy, blindness, and deafness would place man in a terrible situation, where he would be like those 'having no hope, and without God in the world'; but as a matter of fact, these calamities often drive mortals to seek and to find a higher sense of happiness and existence" (p. 486).

Defense office needs equipment

The Civilian Defense office is still in urgent need of certain equipment and supplies. Considerable equipment and supplies have already been donated, and just this week Mr. Elroy J. Winkelmann has loaned to the staff office a mimeograph and a filing cabinet. Judge Harvey A. Adams has also offered the use of his mimeograph.

At present there are approximately one hundred people assigned to the office staff. Due to the fact that many of them cannot devote their time during the day they have not been called upon. We are glad however to have them enrolled and as further need arises they will be called.
Regular hours have been given to those who are free during the daytime. About twenty-five persons have thus far given their services.

The Evacuation Unit of the Civilian Defense Council now has about seven or eight members on its committee. Garage owners and truck owners have been enlisted to help in the matter of evacuation if it should become necessary.

The Medical Unit of the Civilian Defense now has some first aid classes functioning well. One class meets Tuesday evening at the village hall, and other classes meet Wednesday noon and Wednesday evening at the Field House. Other classes will be organized soon.

First aid class has openings

A class in first aid, open to several more members, is meeting each week on Wednesdays, according to the report of Dr. B. T. Best, unit chairman in charge of medical personnel. Dr. W. A. Schimmel has charge of the class which convenes at 12:30 and continues until 2:30.
It will run through a period of five weeks.

Great Lakes official addresses Rifle service unit

The Rifle Service Unit of the civilian defense organization met at the village hall last Thursday night under the direction of Unit Chairman Joseph Wisersky. Purposes of the group and plans for practice and training were fully discussed.

Highlight of the evening was an informal address by T. P.
Kellogg, Lt. Commander at the Great Lakes Naval Training Station.

Commander Kellogg's remarks on the need for earnest and devoted work by all, for an

of swiftness and over-confidence, and for the need of discipline were deeply impressive.

Members of the Rifle Service left the meeting enthusiastic about the plans laid before them and eager to cooperate in all phases of civilian defense work.

Commander Kellogg gave permission to the Herald to use his name in connection with the meeting but not to quote him directly.
He praised the loyalty and energy being shown by Chairman Wisers-ky and his assistants and members as proof of the kind of American spirit which will win the war.

Marvin Rodewald leases store

Marvin Rodewald, manager of the store at 3 W. Davis st., has leased the store and fixtures to Gorden Green. Mr. Green is experienced in merchandising and has great hopes for the future. He will continue the present lines and add hamburgers, sandwiches and coffee in the near future. The delicious "Our Own Make" ice cream will still be made daily.

The Rodewald News Agency has moved one store west in the same building to quarters recently vacated by Super Cleaners.

My Dear Stuart:

When the "local editor" is willing to run our weekly announcements, that is appreciated.—When he accepts for publication an announcement such as we were privileged to run in the Feb. 13 Enterprise, that is real cooperation. When, in addition, he lends editorial support to Christianity's program in the present crisis—words fail us.

Our hats are off to you, Stuart, personally, and in the name of the congregation, I thank you. God bless you.

Rest Home Notes

Mr. Walter E. Sergeant of Palatine, formerly of Arlington Heights, has been receiving care at the Rest Home during the past week. He hopes to return to his home shortly as he is much improved.

Mrs. Mary M. Cruickshank of Arlington Heights, was brought to the Home for care Friday night after a fire had occurred in her home. She remained in the Rest Home until Tuesday afternoon when she returned to her own home.

Mr. George Shirley was able to return to his family in Chicago Saturday afternoon.

Tuesday Mrs. Pauline Hesse celebrated her 93rd birthday. It was remembered by the Home staff and a large birthday cake was enjoyed by all. It was a treat to see Grandma Mueller, who has just celebrated her 91st birthday, congratulating "Tante Hesse."

Attorney Lunk and his daughter were callers at the Home Friday evening. These are some of the faithful friends of Miss Helen Keller. As a Valentine they brought Miss Keller one of Mrs. Lunk's delightful sunshine cakes.

Mrs. Bond, one of the nurses, spent Monday and Tuesday in Chicago with her family.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shirley and their daughter, Florence, visited at the Home Tuesday evening.

Deer Pet of Town

Perhaps the most publicized pet in America is a deer named Pete that has made the town of Barnegat, N. J., his stamping ground for several years. Thousands of people have gone to the community on the Jersey coast to find out for themselves whether Pete isn't just a press agent gag. He isn't. Almost any day the handsome beast can be seen browsing among the town's shops—especially its grocery stores—and walking in and out of offices. Every Barnegatter is Pete's friend and even the dogs of the place have long since given up chasing him.

Arlington Cub Pack News

"There is a knot at the upper end of your backbone to keep it from untwisting," Father John Hubbard told the Cubs and their fathers at the fourth annual banquet held last Wednesday by Pack 232.

He continued by saying that in this knot are two eyes, two ears, a nose and a mouth. Also there is a funny thing called a brain, which we don't use nearly enough—only one-tenth of the time. He urged the boys to make use of their school and learn from their books and their teachers as much as they could.

He further asked the boys to love their parents, their friends and their country, because without love there would be no reason for learning.

His message to the fathers was direct and brief. "I always thought that I was giving my own two boys a great deal of my time, but now I realize that it was not nearly enough. There are many things which I could have done for them that didn't get done."

There were 120 Cubs and fathers in attendance, and everybody was keyed up to the high pitch of the program which went off like clockwork. The singing was done with enthusiasm and really sounded musical. The Den Dads sang one song alone, and did it so well that genuine applause resulted.

The meeting was opened by Cubmaster A. G. Cubley with the presentation of the Colors on the stage of the north school. When the curtains were opened, Old Glory was seen waving in the breeze of a concealed fan, and the den flags spread out behind in the form of a V. George Haycock sounded "To the Colors" on his bugle. The National Anthem was then sung, and the flag saluted. Rev. Milo Vondracek pronounced invocation.

Special guests were Mrs. J. M. Sommer, president of the Arlington Heights Parent-Teacher association, which sponsors Pack 232; Mr. J. M. Sommer, a member of the school board; Mr. Charles S. Stewart, William Kratt and Chief Scout Executive Don Kyger, all representing the Northwest Suburban Council of the B.S.A.

Chief Kyger presented awards to seven Cubs. He also presented the graduation certificate and Webelos badge to Bob Cubley, who is expecting to join B. S. Troop 5.

Mr. Oscar C. Kurtz, who was chairman of the meeting, told what a hard job it was to find a magician. All of them seemed to have moved to other sections of the country. At almost the last minute arrangements were made with Mr. Fred L. Protine, of Elmhurst, to come out. He performed a number of excellent tricks, including Tarbell's famous rope trick. Mr. Protine is cubmaster of a Pack in Elmhurst, and knew from experience that his audience here would be very curious and critical, which they were. The Pack project for next month is the making of bird houses. Each Cub is to make a bird house of any kind, with or without his father's help, and bring it to the March Pack meeting for display.

Child's home environment stressed by Parent Teachers

Mr. Raymond Moore, principal of the Lake Forest high school, the speaker before the Arlington Heights Parent-Teacher Association on Tuesday evening brought home to the parents of children, what all speakers of the year's program have stated in their talks, that children will be exactly what their homes and parents make them.

Mr. Moore talking on "Americanism in the Home," said the development of good citizenship in our children rests squarely on the shoulders of the parents.

Parents must develop in their children a wholesome tolerance and respect for the rights of others before the children are old enough to attend school and must not rear families in intolerance and hate about their neighbors, states Mr. Moore.

In Mr. Moore's opinion, narrow Americans are as bad as narrow Nazis, Communists, and Socialists, and he feels that we must see the good in other movements and in other peoples, and must teach tolerance and appreciation of others in our homes.

Parents need the courage to relinquish set ideals said Mr. Moore, and must encourage religion in the home. Prayer should have a prominent place in every day home life in his opinion, as something to tie to. Children must be taught to seek strength for a source they cannot see. We must build a spirit that is unshakable, an enthusiasm for something and a blind loyalty.

The ideals of the flag should be expressed in the school room and at home, and schools must help to make good Americans, broad-minded, by teaching both sides of a question.

Parents must not discuss the mistakes of past administrations and those now in office before their children, says Mr. Moore, for they have the ability to understand only as they are developed, and do not have the background of adult experience.

He concluded by urging the parents to do all in their power to develop good citizens in their homes, the place where children grow and develop their ideals.

Mrs. Betsy King presented her grade school orchestra in a short concert, and the splendid response they received from their audience speaks well for their progress this year.

Miss Welch presented a short founders day observance, honoring the 45th birthday of the Parent-Teacher Association.

Northbrook news

Mr. Arthur Therrien has been appointed collector for the village of Northbrook. His office will be in the civic building and he will take office there on March 1. Mr. Therrien has served as mayor several years ago, also as village trustee.

There will be a penny social at the Presbyterian church hall on Feb. 25. An entertainment of musical numbers, games and a play "It's a Woman's Privilege" will be given. Everyone welcome.

No social activities will be given at St. Norbert's church during Lent. Perpetual Novena to Our Lady of Sorrows every Friday evening at 7:45 p. m.

News has been heard that William Knight has been promoted from Corporal to Sergeant at Camp Polk, Louisiana.

Northbrook P.T.A. had a most delightful time on last Tuesday afternoon when several women represented the past presidents by wearing the gowns they wore when the association was organized about 26 years ago.

Mrs. Emily Bartelme was the first president to have passed away several years ago. Mrs. Emily Therrien was the first secretary, and has been an active member ever since, also president in 1923.

Mrs. Harold Werhane is the present president.

East Maine

Mrs. Harry Nielsen is out in California for a vacation. She plans to visit with her son, Melvin who is enrolled in a college on the west coast as an air cadet and also to spend some time visiting relatives.

A telegram received at the William Wilke home last week informed them that their son, Richard, has been transferred from Camp Grant and is now stationed at Camp Fort Wheeler, in Georgia.

One hundred twenty ladies attended the birthday-bunco, sponsored by St. Matthew's Ladies Aid at the school hall on Wednesday afternoon, Feb. 11. Coffee and cake were served. Mrs. August Geweke and Miss Alvina Beto, two prominent members of the Aid, who have long been on the sick list were also able to attend the party.

The Northbrook unit of the Cook County Farm Bureau met in a special all-day session at the home of Mrs. Dunne, on Wednesday, Feb. 11. The ladies had a very interesting lesson on making basic dress patterns. Accurate measurements were taken of each lady and patterns made or adjusted accordingly. Mrs. Dunne and Mrs. Irene Long were in charge of the lesson. A pot luck lunch was enjoyed at noon.

A large crowd attended the Valentine hard-times party sponsored by the Grennan Heights Improvement Association at the Croatian school hall, February 13, and put the party over in a big way. A group of special entertainers presented numbers between dances and then mingled with the crowd and instructed them in the methods of doing such old time dances as the polka, schottische and square dance. It was a lot of fun. Hot dogs and soft drinks were served for refreshments.

Three churches join to observe 'Day of Prayer'

Three churches of Arlington Heights — the Methodist, First Presbyterian, and St. John's Evangelical, will observe World Day of Prayer in a union service this Friday, February 20, from 1:30 p. m. to 3 p. m. o'clock at the St. John's Evangelical church. This service is sponsored by the women's organizations of the three churches. Everyone is invited.

The theme for the service will be "I Am the Way," which is the world theme. The pastors of the participating churches will make brief talks, there will be special music, and other special features for this time of prayer and meditation.

Interdenominational and interfaith in nature, this World Day of Prayer will be observed in thousands of communities throughout the world on this day, February 20. In 1920 interdenominational missionary organizations of churches in the United States and Canada set aside the first Friday in Lent as a Day of Prayer. Missionaries carried the idea with them to foreign mission fields, and in 1927 the World Day of Prayer was established.

Last year Senator Davis of Pennsylvania considered the World Day of Prayer important enough to discuss it on the floor of the United States Senate. His words were subsequently printed in the Congressional Record. Last year also, musical concerts of national interest, including one by Marion Anderson, were dedicated to the World Day of Prayer.

In this time of international strife, when the people of the world need moral renewal and spiritual strength, the participating churches of Arlington Heights invite the public to take time for this World Day of Prayer.

One act play to be given with mission school

A one-act play, "The World Begins at Home" by Janet Seville Bragdon, will be presented in connection with the school of missions at the First Presbyterian church this coming Sunday evening. There will also be a brief worship service, group study classes, and refreshments. The public is invited to this mission program which begins at 7 o'clock.

The play will be given by the Senior-Young People's Society under the direction of Mrs. William C. Muller. The young people in the play and the parts they are to take is as follows:

Stuart Page as Mr. Johnson, a minister missionary.
Bob Briggs as Gordon, a college boy.
Bill Williams as Jake, a Jewish bootblack.

Christine Cox as Dorothy Lumberg, a girl interested in Christian Young People's work.
Cynthia Beckman as Mrs. Tracy, a community worker.

Lorraine Jackson as Naomi Freeman, a colored woman who does Christian work among her own people.

Ruth Koerber as the town crier. The worship service will be conducted by Mrs. Lena Fehman. The class periods for the different age groups will be as follows:

Adults: "Foot Prints and Highways: The American Indian," with Mrs. Donald Costain, leader.
Intermediates: seniors and young people: "Living Together in Today's World," with Miss Naomi Smart, leader.

Juniors: "Young America Makes Friends," with Mrs. Albert Bauer and teachers of the Junior Department in charge.

Refreshments will be served at the conclusion of the program with Mrs. Park Allen in charge.

One Cause of Crime

Attempted homicide has been often reported due to a low blood sugar. A hunter returning with a gun on his shoulder shot a woman sleeping in a car. When asked why he did it he said that an impulse had come over him. He did not know the woman, nor she him, but the urge to kill was so great that he had to yield to it. An examination of his blood showed a great lowering in the sugar content.

Regional firemen schools to be established

2,000 firemen attend state meet; is part of program

Richard Jahn, Arlington Heights fire chief was one of the few firemen from the northwest section of Chicago metropolitan area who attended the state conference of fire fighters at Springfield last week. Over 2,000 were in attendance, called together by Governor Green.

Mr. Jahn appeared before Arlington Heights village board Monday night when he gave a resume of the session, to which he had been sent by local officials.

Many prominent authorities in defense circles gave talks, but what interested Chief Jahn particularly was the announcement of Roy Alsip, secretary of the Illinois Firemen's association that regional state training schools would be held at key places throughout the state.

The association is going another step forward and will supply two men eligible to give intensified fire fighting instruction for two day periods before members of individual fire companies or groups of companies. "This is the biggest forward step that has been taken in fire protection in years," states Mr. Jahn.

The firemen received a lot of advice and suggestions on ways to safeguard their home cities from disastrous fires should they be bombed from the air. One of the suggestions if adopted in Arlington Heights, will reach into the basement and attic of all Arlington Heights homes. Ordinances will be asked authorizing the inspection of all homes and business places for the purpose of eliminating fire hazards. It is among debris that bomb fires receive their greatest impetus, the firemen were told.

Among the speakers at the Springfield meeting were: C. P. Sullivan, department of public safety, Gov. Green, Capt. Wm. Waugh, state co-ordinator, and Col. H. M. Kellogg. Mr. Kellogg outlined the purposes for which the $100,000-000 appropriation will be expended. Areas within 300 miles of the Atlantic and Pacific coasts will first receive their needs. Interior industrial centers come next. If there is any money left, urban communities will receive consideration.

"It does not take a wise man to see that if any defense measures are undertaken in Arlington Heights area, the responsibility will fall almost entirely on local people," stated Chief Jahn.

"Trial blockouts in the metropolitan area, will only be authorized by Mayor Kelly, Chicago co-ordinator. Orders for real blockouts will come from proper government authorities."

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lackner to celebrate 50th anniversary

The golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lackner, 303 W. Vail ave., will be observed by their children and families in a quiet celebration at the family home on Feb. 24.

The couple is well known in this community, having spent most of their lives here since their marriage on Feb. 24, 1892. Until two years ago, Mr. Lackner had been employed by the Creamery Package Mfg. Co. He is 78 years old and his wife is 77.

Mr. and Mrs. Lackner reared three children, Mrs. Edwin Radloff, Mrs. John Albrecht and William, all living in Arlington Heights.

It Happened Here

Snow rests so lightly on the sleeping earth,
Richly lies, a robe of priceless worth;

So is earth wrapped as a mother happens her young,

The last kiss given, the last lullabies sung;

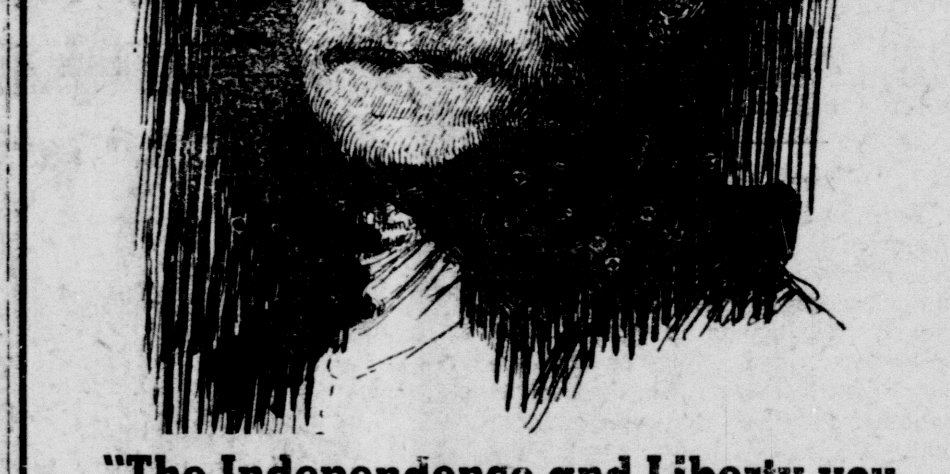

With the star candles placed, all prayers said,
She waits the resurrection of the dead.

In the wall back of the pulpit and on either side of the preacher's chair were two long and narrow closets; in the closets, when we were very young, used to live an odd miscellany of books and papers. There were extra hymnals, Bibles and Testaments in the one closet and in the other were the Sunday school song books, the leaflets and papers which might be taken home, and a very small library of children's books, moral in tone and usually of nearly primer size.

The books were well-worn and included such titles as "Pride Goes Before A Fall," "False Shame," "Paul Pry," "Bessie At The Seashore" and "The Vinegar Hill" series. Any one of those books would be a collector's item, now and we would bid even beyond reason for the Vinegar Hill series. The Vinegar Hill people were as authentic as the people of the Cabbage Patch. But the old church has long been remodelled, stained glass replacing the windows through which we could once see the snow falling or the lush green of spring, the wood stove and long black stove pipes banished and the contents of the closets no doubt burned on the rubbish pile. Pastors and teachers, long gone, might be surprised to learn which of their teaching aids made the most lasting impression.

S'Amper.

"The Independence and Liberty you possess are work of joint efforts, of common dangers, suffering and success . . ." —Farewell Address

Today, as in Washington's time, people must act together to achieve their common goals. Washington's leadership won for us freedom and independence. We must make every sacrifice necessary to preserve it.

Hillside Red Cross keep six sewing machines busy

The 24 ladies present at the last meeting, kept six sewing machines humming along at full speed making rompers, surgical gowns and children's dresses.

They are also busy making a quilt for which chance books will be sold to raise money to buy the pins earned by the Red Cross workers for 144 hours of service, and to buy the buttons, which are furnished by the ladies, for all garments made.

Mrs. F. Wagner, Mrs. R. Smith, and Mrs. R. Freeman are now eligible for their Red Cross pins.

Our membership has been increased from 49 to 52 by Mrs. Lyman Goss, Jr., Miss J. Oberwatter, and Miss M. Diball. New members are always welcome.

Mrs. Robert Smith of Hillside was hostess on Monday evening to a surprise miscellaneous shower for Mrs. George Grossi, Jr. Co-hostesses with Mrs. Smith were Mesdames Sargent, Elliott and Getner. About 35 guests were present and enjoyed the evening after the lovely array of gifts had been opened. Dainty refreshments were served; the table decorations were pink and white. Mr. and Mrs. Grossi have gone to housekeeping on South Vail, Arlington Heights.

68 bridge tables join 'Bundles for Bluejackets'

Sixty-eight tables of enthusiastic bridge players filled the Field house last Wednesday for the first benefit of the Arlington Heights Unit of the Bundles for Bluejackets. Gaily colored table cloths lent a festive note to the room. In the center of each table stood a miniature bluejacket bearing a life saver with "U. S. S. Arlington" printed on it. These jaunty little sailors were made by the following members, Mrs. Wm. Lathen, Mrs. Edward Crofoot, Mrs. O. R. Cline, Mrs. Leon Lynn, Jr. The Ensign standing on the exhibit table, holding a Comfort Kit and all the other clever decorations were made by Mrs. Wm. Forrest and Mrs. Joseph Brady. The table prizes were pastel colored pottery flower pots with coasters. All the delicious cakes served with the ice cream and coffee were made by members of the organization.

A beautiful chenille bedspread and accompanying quilt were raffled—the winner was Mrs. R. C. Swanson, 536 S. Highland. These useful and highly decorative covers were donated by a loyal friend from Chicago who was present at the benefit but requested to be kept anonymous.

On the platform, alongside of a display of the knitting done by the Unit was a beautiful plant donated by Mr. Boettcher, florist and a basket of red, white and blue gladioli which also was donated by a friend, Mr. and Mrs. Minor McEuen led the community singing. Then Mrs. McEuen sang a group of patriotic songs—"The Shrine of Dover," "The White Cliffs of Dover" and "My Own United States"—Mr. and Mrs. McEuen accompanying. The proceeds from the benefit were $299.74.

All of the members of the organization did a splendid job—making coffee, serving the tables and in many other ways working to make the affair a huge success.

Fidelis circle to learn of honey in cooking

Mrs. A. G. Gill of Evanston, secretary of the Illinois honey foundation will be the speaker at the next meeting of the Fidelis Circle of the Methodist church.

The group will meet on Tuesday evening, February 24, in the home of Mrs. Milo Vondracek with Mrs. Ray Atkinson the assistant hostess.

Mrs. Gill for several years has had charge of the honey booth at the Illinois State Fair, where honey products are on display and honey bakery goods is judged. She will bring with her many practical recipes using honey in place of sugar, and will instruct the group on practical use of honey in baking and canning.

In view of the present sugar shortage it is expected that a large group will be present to hear Mrs. Gill and to see the excellent uses of honey in place of sugar. Friends are cordially invited to attend.

Mrs. Marshall Pate was hostess to her bridge club for dessert and cards on Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Sherman Pate is visiting her daughter and family, the McConagha's in Appleton, Wis.

Style show is feature as Woman's Club host to juniors

The Arlington Heights Woman's club met on Wednesday evening in the field house with the members of the Junior club as their special guests.

The Silhouette shop of the village presented the program of the evening, an advance showing of spring styles.

Some fifty costumes ranging from casual clothes to dressy afternoon frocks were charmingly modeled by Misses Alberta Meyer, Gleah Brown, Rosemary Glueckert, Mrs. Peter B. Atwood, Miss Rosemary Schwartz, Mrs. Elmo Williams, Mrs. W. G. Franke, Mrs. Willard Pate, Mrs. Fred Siegel, Miss Janet Siegel, Mrs. H. S. Ratliff, Mrs. D. L. Grant, and Mrs. Dwight McNally.

In the casual group a red flannel slack suit modeled by Mrs. Willard Pate, received much attention. Over it was worn a white wool box coat. This versatile coat was trimmed in a braid of bright red hearts. Matching the slacks was a smart jerkin, accented by a long sleeved white silk blouse.

A version of the popular mother and daughter outfits charmingly modeled by Mrs. Fred Siegel and her daughter, Janet, created a sensation in the suit group. These suits are identically tailored in a patio rose Hollywood knit. They are perfect outfits for both mother and daughter, no matter what her age may be.

An attractive costume suit was that modeled by Mrs. H. S. Ratliff. The plaid wool jacket was worn over a slim powder blue silk dress.

Brown, beige, blue and white were the colors in the jacket that boasted large square silver buttons. The pockets had interesting big tucks for trim. The skirt of the dress was pleated all around, but the dress otherwise was simply tailored with small square buttons matching those on the jacket. The hat worn with this costume was a powder blue felt. Special attention was called to the ultra smart bag in matching wool plaid, made up especially for this costume.

Silken textured rayon faille was the material in a very new suit dress for the stylish matron, worn by Mrs. Dwight McNally. The detachable eyelet embroidered blouse added the white accent and touch of femininity for flawless grooming. Her hat was a black felt soft or with red straw cloth and a smart black veil for trim. With it she carried a large black kid bag.

Preceding the fashion show the high school orchestra under direction of Mr. D. G. Costain, entertained with a group of numbers, and during the program Mr. Wm. Benson of Batavia sang "Song of Songs" and "My Message." He was accompanied by Mrs. Lull, who also played the background music for the fashion showing.

Mrs. D. G. Costain served as commentator for the presentation, calling attention to the many clever details on these attractive spring models.

The hostess committee of the Woman's club served refreshments following the program.

Clara Metz marries Ered Kuester, Palatine

Miss Clara Metz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hy. Metz of Arlington Hts., became the bride of Mr. Fred G. Kuester of Palatine, son of Mr. W. K. Kuester on Saturday evening, February 14, in the Immanuel Lutheran church of Palatine.

Rev. Koester, pastor of the Immanuel church, read the marriage rites in the soft glow of candlelight at 6:30 p. m., using the double ring ceremony.

The church was decorated with peach gladioli and candles. Preceding the ceremony, Miss Mary Ann Eiler sang "Oh Promise Me" and following the rites she sang "The Lord's Prayer." She was accompanied by Mr. Zimdahl who also played the wedding march.

The bride who was given in marriage by her father, wore for her wedding a gown of white silk marquisette over white taffeta. It was fashioned with a basque blouse and bouffant skirt and short puffed sleeves. Her long veil was of net and she carried a colonial bouquet of white carnations.

Lillian Metz, sister of the bride, was her only attendant. She was gowned in pale blue moire taffeta fashioned in princess style with short puffed sleeves. She carried a colonial bouquet of pink carnations.

Ray Heppner of Northbrook, brother-in-law of the groom, served as best man.

The bride's mother wore for the event a wine colored crepe dress. Her flowers were pink and white carnations.

A reception for eighty guests was held immediately following the wedding in the Lutheran school hall in Palatine, where pink and blue decorations carried out the wedding color scheme.

The bride, a graduate of the local high school with the class of '38, is employed at the Arlington Roller Mills and will continue work for the present. The groom attended the schools of Palatine and is employed by the Set Screw and Manufacturing Company of Bensenville. The young couple will be at home in Palatine.

Rev. Vondracek to speak Friday at Chicago church

Rev. Milo Vondracek, pastor of the Methodist church of the village will be a guest speaker in the Ner-Tamid Jewish tabernacle at 2754 Rosemont ave., in Chicago, on Friday evening of this week. Rev. Vondracek and Dr. Benjamin Birnbaum, Rabbi of the Ner-Tamid tabernacle arranged an exchange of pulpits in observance of brotherhood week, and on last Sunday morning Dr. Birnbaum gave an inspiring address before the Methodist congregation.

Dr. Birnbaum, in a stirring and thought provoking message, stressed the importance of the cultivation of Christian principles and religion in the lives of all people, no matter their color or race, and stated that the world dilemma of today has been caused by the lack of the application of such principles.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Meyer and their new baby son Robert, who have been staying at the Emil Meyer home in the village for the past few weeks, returned to their home in Chicago this week.

Technicolor high lights Des Plaines' week-end shows

Technicolor is predominant this week-end at the Des Plaines Theatre, both in the current double feature attraction, and again in the program opening Sunday.

Colorful Cuba will be seen in all its beauty when "Week End in Havana," gay musical comedy hit filmed in color, opens on Sunday for a three day stay. Alice Faye, John Payne, Carmen Miranda and Cesar Romero are the leading players in the star-studded cast. Don Ameche co-starred with Joan Bennett in "Confirm or Deny," tells the thrilling story of an American newspaper correspondent in London during September of 1940. This thrilling action picture completes the Sunday, Monday, Tuesday program.

Currently showing, is the Technicolor version of "Smilin' Through," co-starring for the first time, Jeanette MacDonald and Gene Raymond. This beautiful story, set to music, should be seen with someone you love. "Target for Tonight" completes the current program. You will find no Hollywood stars in this picture. This is the real thing, acted by members of the R.A.F., who take you on an actual bombing raid over Germany — and back again.

Elk Grove Home bureau to meet Wednesday

The Elk Grove Home Bureau will meet Tuesday at 2 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Geo. Koper, Arlington Heights, located on Algonquin rd.

The major project will be "Furniture Arrangement" presented by Mrs. John Wetterman.

The minor project will be "Textile Identification and Care" by Mrs. John Mecklenburg.

Officers will be elected by the Australian ballot system. All members are asked to bring friends and prospective members.

Members were asked at the last meeting to take an inventory of their canning needs, and report what they need in the line of equipment for canning such as jars, tops, rings, and pressure cookers.

Pressure cookers may be purchased through the Home Bureau at a very reasonable price.

Des Plaines liquor store opens Sat., Feb. 21

The grand opening of the new Des Plaines liquor store, located at 713 Center street, Des Plaines, will be held tomorrow, Saturday. This new liquor store will deal exclusively in package products and no drinking will be allowed on the premises. This policy will permit women to purchase liquor as they would other merchandise.

Mr. Ed. Jensen has been appointed manager of this modern store, featuring service and economically priced liquor of all kinds.

All liquor sold in case lots, states Mr. Jensen, will be specially priced. At your next wedding, banquet or party, let the Des Plaines Liquor Store take complete charge of your liquor problems.

LEADER OF MEN
Oh Happiest they of the Human Race

To whom our God has given Grace To hear, to fear and to Read and Pray;

To lift the latch and force the way. But better had they never been born

Who shall read to doubt or shall read to scorn.

The Golden Rule
Only what God puts into the hearts and minds of men may last forever. By struggle men shall achieve, not by gift. That is, and has been, shall be God's law. The child that is to be richer than Rockefeller and an inventor greater than Edison, and a leader of men more powerful than what the world has ever known.

The Servant
I simply claim the intuition of discerning all things in physical, mental and spiritual life, and all things in the material world, including perpetual motion.

And so the finger of God moves on, nor all your pity, nor wit, nor all your tears shall wash out one work of it.

A Suicide
Is one who has taken his own life and when the soul shall leave the body it shall go half way between heaven and earth and there it shall be blown backward and forward and suffer in anguish and pain, not being able to return to earth or go into heaven until the day that God had ordained it shall leave this earth.

Death
Look into a dead man's eyes and what do you see—nothing but a vacant stare therein where the soul has left the body to be judged by God what you have been in this earth.

Prayer and Oath
Help me, Oh God, I pray, that in thy wisdom thou has given me a man task; help me that I may not prove unworthy before God and my fellow men.

The Miracle
The miracle is one who has brought his soul in touch with God the Father, therefore a mind higher and greater than anyone else, or what anyone has ever thought of, therefore, the people shout a miracle, and so God is here.

Religion of today instead of worshipping God, they now worship a series of forms, traditions, idols and images, dollars and cents.

The Great Counselor
Prince of Peace,
God, the Servant Amen

Girl Scouts enjoy sleigh - ride

Wheeling Troop Girl Scouts took advantage of Lincoln's birthday and the freshly fallen snow to organize a sleighing party last Thursday afternoon.

Twenty girls accompanied by their captain, Mrs. L. P. Denoyer, and one of the troop committee, Mrs. J. Nielsen, made up the jolly load that spent several hours on a sleigh ride through the forest preserve and side roads of the village.

After the ride the party adjourned to the Nielsen home where they enjoyed a treat of hot chocolate and doughnuts.

Several hundred attend party

Between two and three hundred persons joined in the fun at the Valentine masquerade party and dance held by the Wheeling Recreation club last Saturday evening.

Special features of the entertainment were a mock wedding in which Wilbur Updell and his cousin were the bride and groom and the usual "hungry five German band."

The large basket of groceries which was the first door prize went to John Forke of Wheeling and the beautiful Valentine box of candy, went to a young lady from Arlington.

FROM HOW FAR THAT LITTLE LIGHT BULB GETS ITS BEAM

Have you heard about the Consumer's Pledge all homemakers have been asked to sign? It's a pledge to help conserve—as a part of our civilian defense activity—everything we own and use.

Most of us are inclined to forget when we buy a new coat—or food—or house-cleaning supplies—that we are buying the services of men in factories—and of the railroads that bring these articles to us. When we turn on an electric light, do we ever think of the big power plants with their complicated machinery and the network of wires and poles necessary to bring electricity into our homes? Do we ever think of the coal that keeps these plants going—and the men toiling in the coal mines? Yet waste affects all of these as well as ourselves. So you see how very important this pledge is.

CONSUMER'S PLEDGE
I Will Buy Carefully
I Will Take Good Care of the Things I have
I Will Waste Nothing

If you've not already signed one of these pledges, won't you clip this one—or copy it—and have everyone in your family, who is old enough to cooperate, sign it? Then send it to Consumer Division, Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C.

The Next Step
We can begin by urging even the youngest members of the family to watch and turn off all electric lights not in use. Let them understand that when they do this they are helping to conserve not only electric power but coal which is one of our country's resources we must conserve, if we are to get ahead in this struggle for sufficient production to win the war. Next let's concentrate on the best way to use our cooking heat so that none will be wasted. We'll be helping our budgets as well as helping our country conserve coal.

THIRTEEN POINTS FOR SAVING COOKING HEAT
There are at least thirteen different ways we can do this. These points apply to electric, gas, or other stoves, and they are listed in the January 1942 issue of the Consumer's Guide, a publication of the Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C.

1. Use the oven for several things at once. When you're going to use your oven for one dish, plan to bake others at the same time.
2. Be sure to have any food you are going to bake ready to go into the oven when the oven is at the right temperature.
3. Place pans in alternate positions on oven racks, in order to provide for circulation of heat, thus consuming a minimum of heat energy.
4. Do not keep opening the oven door. You shouldn't have to look at the food until the baking time is almost up.
5. Don't use the oven to heat the kitchen—unless you just have to. Saving Heat by Proper Use of Top Burners and Heating Units
6. Do not heat a whole teakettle of water when you need only a little.
7. Heat water in the same utensil in which it is to be used, and always cover the utensil.
8. The sediment which forms in the bottom of the teakettle should be removed if you want to save your cooking heat.
9. Use flat bottom pans the same size or only slightly larger than the heating unit. Pans that are too small waste heat. If they are too large they may cause the enamel on the range to chip or crack.
10. Do not scrub the bottoms of pans until they shine—a dull surface absorbs more heat than a shiny one.
11. Use pans with tightly fitted covers to conserve heat.
12. Cook most foods, especially vegetables, in the smallest possible amount of water. It saves vitamins and minerals as well as cooking heat.
13. Do as much cooking as you can during non-peak-load hours. This, of course, applies especially to defense plant areas where the electric generating capacity is limited. You may find you can have your dinner a little earlier or later—or at least prepare a good part of it earlier in the day.

OBITUARIES

Louise Malzahn

Louise Malzahn nee Engelbrecht was born May 10, 1861, in Insel, Regan, Germany. At the age of 22 years she came to make her home in the United States, namely at Harvard.

May 30, 1884 she was united in marriage to Mr. August Malzahn at Harvard. This couple made their home in Harvard for about 3 years and in 1888 came to Arlington Heights where they lived together until 1936 when Mr. Malzahn passed away.

This union was blessed with seven children of which one son, William, passed away at the age of 23 years. Mrs. Malzahn was a member of the St. Peters Lutheran Ladies Aid for many years.

Mrs. Malzahn has been making her home with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Siero for the past 3 years, where on Thursday afternoon, February 12, she passed away at the age of 80 years, 9 months and 2 days.

She leaves to mourn her departure, six children, Mr. Ernst Malzahn, Mr. Henry Malzahn, Mrs. Elise Nordmeier, all of Arlington Heights, Mrs. Marie Schutt of Harvard; Mrs. Erna Siero of Palatine township, Mr. Robert Malzahn, at Fort Lewis, Wash., and who at the present time is ill at the Fort Lewis hospital and unable to attend the funeral; two daughters-in-law and three sons-in-law; 12 grandchildren and two great grandchildren; one sister-in-law, and a host of other relatives and friends.

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at Karstens Funeral home and at 2:00 p. m. at the St. Peters Evangelical Lutheran church at Arlington Heights. Interment in the St. Peters Evangelical Lutheran cemetery.

CARD OF THANKS
We take this opportunity to thank relatives and friends for the many kindnesses extended us during our recent bereavement. We especially thank the Ladies Aid and Rev. Fricke for his consoling words.

Children of
Mrs. Louise Malzahn.

IN MEMORIAM
Henry Mensching, Jr.—In loving memory of our dear son and brother who passed away four years ago February 24, 1938. Just when his day seemed brightest,

Just when his hope seemed best, God called him from among us, To His eternal rest.

Sadly missed, but God knows best. Loving Parents and Sister.

Surprise shower
Mrs. Arthur Hugo was one of twenty-five ladies who were present at a surprise shower held on Friday evening, February 13, in honor of Betty Jane Gunder of Chicago. Betty is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Gunder, who have been friends of the Hugos for thirty years.

The bride-to-be is employed as a bookkeeper and the guests were ready to greet her as she came from work. She received many beautiful gifts. After the packages were opened a delicious supper was served.

Miss Gunder will be married March 14 in Swedish Mission church, Chicago.

Ernest Kruses leave on vacation
Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Kruse are away on a vacation trip during which they will visit their children. They planned to make their first stop with their daughter, Eloise, a sophomore at Illinois Wesleyan College at Bloomington.

Next they were to visit their son, Elwin, who is a student at Georgia Military College at Milledgeville, Georgia. From Georgia they will travel across the country to Lawton, Oklahoma, where they will spend a week-end with their son, Lieutenant Robert Kruse at Fort Sill.

Their daughter, Peggy, is staying with friends here during their absence.

American Federation of Labor
The American Federation of Labor dates from November, 1881, when the Federation of Organized Trades and Labor Unions of the United States and Canada was formed.

News of Prospect Heights

St. James guild meets next week

The St. James Guild of the Catholic church will hold its regular monthly business meeting on Monday, Feb. 23 in the school hall at 8 p. m.

Mrs. Cizek at that time will present plans for the Easter Monday card party, an annual event of the Guild. She is anxious to have a large group in attendance to assist in plans for the affair.

An interesting program has also been arranged for this meeting, with Mary Urick in charge. She will show many colored slides that her brother Joe has taken at Camp Baker, San Francisco, Cal., where he is in army training. The pictures also include many scenic slides of that part of the country.

Father Stier will also be present to give a talk on the lenten season.

Several door prizes will be awarded to members at this meeting and refreshments will be served.

Girl Scout news

The Girl Scouts of Prospect Heights will meet at the school house at 7 Friday evening. Plans for a potluck dinner will be made and also plans for a splash party. We will elect new troop leaders. The scouts interested in getting their first aid badges completed, should attend the meeting and find out about our plans. Dr. Royal Fitch of Prospect Heights will assist us in Red Cross first aid. The meeting will adjourn between 8:30 and 8:45.

Mr. Roy C. Bolt has again returned to Prospect Heights, after visiting his future home in Kansas City, and making a business trip to Denver, Colorado. Mr. and Mrs. Bolt were host to a family dinner party on Sunday, their guests being Mr. and Mrs. Harry Delano, Miss Harriet Delano, Mr. and Mrs. W. Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. A. Banson, Mr. and Mrs. H. Bolt, Grandma and Grandpa Peters and Grandma Bolt who spent the week-end with the Bolt family.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Ledyard were guests at the birthday party of Mrs. R. Ulrich, mother of Mrs. Ledyard on Friday evening.

The Prospect Heights St. James Guild will meet at the home of Mrs. W. E. Abbs on McDonald rd. ing, February 25, same time same Friday evening, Feb. 27, at 8 p. m. place.

Locals

We are sorry to report that Mr. Edw. Mueller's illness has made it necessary to remove him to the Elmhurst hospital. We hope that Eddie will soon be home and well again.

Young Jimmy Campbell must have felt that misery loves company, so to make his mother feel that she was not alone, having broken her arm last week, Jimmy accidentally broke his collar bone. This if you ask is just too much of a bad thing, let's hope the Campbells will all be well soon and that this will put an end to their misfortunes.

Mrs. Jarmer had the misfortune to burn herself severely last week end, while this is most uncomfortable, we hope that she will recuperate quickly.

Others laid up with colds, are Billy Hopewell, Jr., Bob and Joanie Kertcher, Johnnie Sheppard and Mrs. Edw. Mueller. We hope they will be well soon.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schwennessen, on their wedding anniversary which was the 14th of February. The folks celebrated by visiting Mrs. Schwennessen's parents, the Davals of Streator, Ill. during the week-end. Mr. and Mrs. Glen Gissler has had as their house guest, Mr. Gissler's cousin, from Lincoln Ill., for the past week. Thursday evening, the folks and their guest enjoyed the hockey game in Chicago.

Lions club stream lined for action

The Lions club of Prospect Heights had an exceptionally good meeting on Wednesday evening, February 11th, at Simson's on Euclid avenue and Rand road. After a delicious meal and a few songs, President Sobwick opened the meeting for necessary business.

All committees were given a thorough examination and a number of replacements were made. Your Lions club committees are now streamlined for action and open for suggestions from everyone for ways and means to benefit or improve our community.

After a "Turkey in the Straw," by Lion Tom Holmes, and the awakening of Little Joe by the drop of a spoon, the meeting was adjourned for a little pinochle.

Next meeting Wednesday evening, February 25, same time same place.

St. Valentine dance success

The St. Valentine dance held last Saturday evening at the Mt. Prospect country club, brought a good crowd regardless of the weather, and everyone enjoyed themselves apparently as most of the folks stayed on until the strains of the last musical number. The chairman, Mr. Edw. Vallely, Mr. Chas. Darfler, and Mr. Dave Williams express their appreciation to those who helped to make this another social success.

P-T. A. news

The next regular meeting of the Executive Board of the Prospect Heights Parent Teachers Association will be held at the home of Mrs. G. Hill, on Maple ave., Tuesday evening, Feb. 24, all members of the board are requested to be on hand as many important matters of business will be brought up.

The next regular meeting of the Prospect Heights Parent-Teachers association will meet at the school house Tuesday afternoon at 2 p. m. on the 10th of March. The children of the lower grades under the direction of their teacher, Miss Vivian Engh, will take part in the program.

The P-T. A. health program will be well under way this week at our school. Schick tests will be given to those who have had parental permission. A dental survey has already been completed. Vaccinations and diphtheria shots will be given later to those with parental consent.

The kitchen shower held at the "Her Shop" on Tuesday afternoon, netted the association quite a large array of kitchen equipment, which will be used to start the hot lunch program as soon as possible. The hot lunch committee, Mr. Geo. Sheppard, chairman; Mrs. Chas. Benzinger, Mrs. Edw. Anderson, and Mrs. Roy A. Hartke, acted as hostesses and served refreshments.

The next big item of expense that we hope to see completed and paid for is the installation of extra cabinets, a food storage cabinet and the school kitchen conditioned so that it meets with Federal approval. This is a big undertaking, but is well worth the efforts of all concerned as there is nothing better than a good hot lunch for active boys and girls of school age. We thank all those who have helped us along so far and are sure that they too, are equally happy for their part in promoting this worthwhile project.

Mrs. Daniel C. Robertson, Sr., entertained Mrs. Edward Miller, Mrs. John Spillar and Mr. Chas. Ledyard at a chop suey luncheon on Tuesday. The ladies enjoyed playing pinochle during the afternoon.

P. H. I. A. meets

The Prospect Heights Improvement Association met at the school house on Wednesday evening. Refreshments followed the discourse of business.

Local persons escape when train hits automobile

Five local persons escaped serious injury and death last week Monday when a Soo line train struck their auto at the crossing on Bryn Mawr ave. south of Des Plaines.

Walter Timmerman, Arlington, was driving west on Bryn Mawr rd. during a snow storm with four others riding with him. At the crossing, at which there are no warning signals, the car was struck by a slow moving train.

Only person injured in the auto was Carl Kersten, Arlington, who received several cuts and was treated at the Northwestern hospital in Des Plaines. Others in the car were Coy Church and August Lennwekl of Des Plaines, and Wilbert Melhop of Bensenville.

A blinding snow storm was blamed for the accident.

SUES FOR $5,000

John H. Noyes has sued C. A. Thorsen in Circuit court for $5,000 damages for injuries in a collision of automobiles on Skokie rd. at Illinois rd. on Oct. 22. He alleges he was driving north and that Thorsen who was driving an auto truck south made a turn there which caused a collision in which plaintiff was injured.

BENSENVILLE, ELMHURST DRIVERS COLLIDE

Arthur Keil of Bensenville and William Simmins of Elmhurst collided last week Tuesday evening at the junction of River rd. and Bryn Mawr ave. when the latter skidded on the ice in an effort to stop. Both cars had been northbound when the accident occurred.

AUTO PLOWS INTO SNOW PLOW

Emil Seaberg of Park Ridge was driving south on rte. 14 with Naomi Budoung, mtr. prospect, when his car struck the rear of a state highway snow plow truck near the Outer Belt Line tracks. No one was injured.

Keep kussia in war rany in Chicago sunday

The biggest rally since America's entry into the war will be held under the auspices of the Russian War Relief at the Chicago Stadium on Washington's birthday, at eight o'clock Sunday evening, February 22.

Among famous speakers on the program will be Madame Maxima Litvinoff, wife of the Russian ambassador to the United States; Joseph Davies, former U. S. ambassador to Russia and author of the best seller "Mission to Moscow," and many stars of stage and screen.

Fifteen thousand persons from Chicago and suburbs are signing a giant petition to be flown to Ambassador Litvinoff, requesting his presence at the mass meeting.

A section of the Stadium has been reserved for representatives of the 26 United Nations fighting the aggressors. The Yugo-slavs, roies, greeks, Chinese, Dutch, and all the other national groups struggling for world freedom will be honored. Panama, Haiti, Honduras, El Salvador, Guatemala, and many others will be represented.

Churchmen from all sections of Chicago are urging their people to attend the rally, demonstrate united unity, and uphold the Russian army in the critical period that faces humanity.

PROSPECT HEIGHTS SUNDAY SCHOOL

E. B. Foxworthy, Supt. Why Sunday school? Let's open the Bible and read in order, Romans 10th chapter, verses 1, 14, 15, 16, 17, 4, 9, 10, 13, and isian 1:18.

For they being ignorant of God's righteousness, and going about to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God.

How then shall they call upon Him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in Him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher?

And how shall they preach, except they be sent? as it is written, How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the Gospel of Peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!

But they have not all obeyed the Gospel. For Esaias saith, "Lord who hath believed our report?"

So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God, for Christ is the end of the Law for righteousness to every one that believeth.

That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shall believe in thy heart that God hath raised Him from the dead, thou shalt be saved.

For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and confession is made unto Salvation.

For Whosoever shall call upon the Name of the Lord shall be saved. Come now, and let us reason together, saith the Lord, though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool.

Our command as Christians. 2nd Timothy 2:15, and 4:2, 3, 4: Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth.

Preach the Word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all long suffering and doctrine.

For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears; And they shall turn away their ear from the Truth, and shall be turned unto Fables.

Come! let us seek the wonderful truths of God's Word — the Blueprint of our destiny.

Classes for all ages, all denominations, welcome.

Cigarette fires bed, suffocates Park Ridge man

Ludvig Ehrhardt, 45 years old, of Dee rd., Park Ridge, was suffocated this Monday when he fell asleep while smoking in bed and the fallen cigarette set fire to the mattress, the Morton Grove county highway police reported. A brother, Gus, discovered the flaming bed too late to save Ehrhardt's life. The two brothers operate a greenhouse.

ITASCA, DES PLAINES CARS COLLIDE; ONE HURT

Fred Klammer, Des Plaines, and H. E. Williams, Itasca, collided last week Monday at the junction of Lawrence and Cumberland rds. with one person being slightly injured.

Klammer had been driving south on Cumberland when he was struck by Williams, who had slowed but not stopped for the stop sign against him. Williams received a few minor cuts and bruises.

PATENTS GRANTED

Home building continues increase

January home building of the suburban area continued its increase of the corresponding period a year ago when 5 per cent more homes were constructed in January of '42.

One noticeable fact of the statistics just released show home building at a cost above that of defense housing. The average cost of the suburban home was $7,356 compared to $4,519 for the unincorporated areas. Among the leaders were Glenview, 17 homes, $150,000, ave. $8,800; Skokie, 11 homes, $120,750, ave. $11,000.

Other cities of this territory are Arlington Heights, 2, $19,000; Des Plaines, 2, $10,000; Mt. Prospect, 4, $34,354; Northbrook, 5, $38,000; and Palatine, 2, $15,000.

On 1 and 2, the recent weeks, pace-setting Eddie's Castle Bar team were stopped cold by Pepper Construction Co., carpenters who "nailed" out a 3-game victory for the evening.

On 3 and 4 Knack Buick Motor

Sales team came very close to getting full revenge, for recent blanking, on the Equipe Service Station team, but could only win 2 games.

On 5 and 6 came the classic of the current bowling year. Webber Paint Co. with only 3-men gave the Sieburg Drug Co. pharmacists a 2-game "shellacking." Somebody got solutions mixed somewhere.

H. C. Young of the Equipe Service

Station team look weekly high series honors and $1.00 with a beautiful 571 series added 144 handicap to total 715 pins. Wow.

Steps Reversible

Researchers showed recently that some of the steps in the breakdown of food proteins and the rebuilding of their parts into body proteins are reversible—that in some stages the process will work both ways. Papan, the active substance of the papaya fruit, is an organic compound which helps the digestive system to break down meats and other proteins preparatory to the rebuilding process. The experiments of Dr. Max Bergmann and associates of the Rockefeller Foundation demonstrated that papain also can have something to do with the rebuilding as well as with the breakdown.

Cardinals Succumb to Crystal Lake

Palatine Takes Second Double Championship in a Row

by G. A. McElroy

Congratulations are in order to the Northeast Conference champions. Coach Les Galitz brought his Niles Trojans to an undisputed championship as they trounced Leyden 58-39 and then man-handled Libertyville 51-25 in conference games last week. The Trojans won their first Northeast Conference sports title in the major division and can make it an undisputed championship by turning back Warren in the final game Friday night. Last year Niles won the undisputed junior varsity title and most of this year's squad with the exception of high scoring Podraza are of that group which was coached by Norman Kent.

Podraza best in the conference

The Niles team has for the most part been made up of three juniors and two seniors. Podraza at guard and Hunsicker at center are the seniors. Podraza plays the center position on offense and has averaged 15.5 points a game with a total of 169 in 11 games. Glatz and Stockfish at forwards and Weldon a good long shooting guard are third year players. Glatz recently scored 24 points against Leyden and has boosted his total to 110 for an average of 10 points a game. Niles has averaged 47 points to opponent's 33 in Northeast games and is playing a fast break for the most part. Niles was ceded number one in the Waukegan Regional tourney.

Crawford's Wildkats undefeated

Another coach in line for a slap on the back this week is Larry Crawford of Libertyville who has brought his junior varsity team, made up of a freshman and four sophomores through 10 conference games undefeated. The conference title is clinched for the Wildkats but they are odds on favorites to beat Woodstock and Arlington in remaining games and make it an undefeated record. After two seasons in a row at the bottom of the heap, Libertyville at last has come into her own again. The Wildcat varsity has been up there in the running the last few years but the lights have been steady losers.

Only loss to suburban champs

Crawford took over this year and the only defeat of the year was to Waukegan, of the big suburban league by 18-17. Look at the Suburban standings and you will see that Waukegan's junior team has won an undisputed title and set a new league scoring total. We guess those Libertyville lads are really all right.

A group of six tooters

The Libertyville team roster is as follows: Paul Schaffer, forward, sophomore, height six feet, weight 153 pounds and age 15 years; Howard Kugath, forward, sophomore, height six feet, weight 140, and age 15 years; Albert Kristan, center, sophomore, height six feet, weight 147 and age 15; Roland Erickson, guard, sophomore, height six ft., weight 146 and age 16; Norman Erickson, guard, freshman, height five feet, eleven, weight 153 and age 14. Could you ask for a better balanced and rangier group of frosh-sops than that? This gang has averaged 27.4 points a game to opponent's 16.8.

Pirate cagers deliver

Palatine's double victory over Northbrook clinched for both teams at least a share of the championship. Both will have to be in top form Friday to make their titles undisputed as they meet Bensenville's strong teams on the Bison's court. Bensenville's lightweights could grab a share of the honors by gaining a decision over Coach J. E. Stutzman's Palatine junior team. Palatine holds a 21-16 decision in an earlier meeting. Last week the junior Bisons eliminated Barrington from the race with a 32-21 victory.

Antioch might get a share

The only team that can tie Palatine's rangy varsity five is Antioch. This depends upon Antioch beating Ela on Friday and the Pirates being defeated at Bensenville. The process of elimination in recent weeks found Barrington dropping Antioch out of first place, Palatine eliminating Barrington, and then last Friday Barrington spoiling Bensenville's bid. All this gave Palatine the chance to gain an undisputed title by getting a revenge victory over the Bisons. Bensenville beat Palatine 29-28 on Palatine's court just after the holidays when the Pirates failed to tally in the last quarter. Palatine is playing at a much different pace just now and is out to even the season's count with their southern neighbors.

Warren has tourney edge

The way we see it Coach Bob Kelton's Warren quintet must be given the edge in the district tournament at Waukegan. Not only have the Blue Devils been playing improved and consistent ball of late but they have the weakest opponents in their bracket and are more used to playing on large floors than the Northwest Conference teams. If Palatine is right, they may win the tournament. St. Mary's of Des Plaines, of whom little is known, might turn out to be the tournament surprise. At any rate it looks like plenty of close competition before the champ is determined.

Play to 2,000 in eight days

Palatine packed 2,000 spectators in their gym last week in the three games with Barrington, Arlington and Northbrook. Eight hundred saw the Arlington game. It was a grand finale to the 1941-42 home season both financially and from the victory standpoint.

A jinx is broken

One jinx that came to light in connection with the Palatine-Arlington double header, is a side issue, but interesting to note. Coach Campbell of Arlington played 4 years on the Princeton, Illinois high school team before becoming a star at Beloit College. In those four years his team never did beat neighboring Depeue in all of 13 games. Coach of the Depeue team was J. E. Stutzman, who has piloted Palatine's lightweights to a league championship. When the two men met before the game last week in which they coached rival lightweights teams, Campbell asked Stutzman if the Depeue jinx was going to follow him clear up here. The result of the game indicated that Campbell is not jinxed even if some of the Arlington varsity boys are beginning to feel that Palatine has a spell over them.

Becker nets 11 points for Arlington

Tornadoes drop preliminary

by JOE SMART

Arlington lost their fourth double header of the season last Friday, as they lost to Crystal Lake on the latter's floor. The Lakers varsity won by a score of 44-30, largely due to their good shooting. They made twenty baskets out of sixty-two shots. The Green Tornadoes lost another hard fought game as they met a better shooting quintet from Crystal Lake.

Arlington's loss was due largely to their bad shooting and wild passing. The Cards made twelve baskets out of eighty-two shots, for fifteen per cent. Heights got off to a good start, as usual, on baskets by Bolte and Coleman with the latter adding a charity toss.

Meanwhile Eibisch and Higgins made baskets for Crystal Lake. Becker then hit two and Maseng hit one for the Cards while Cowan sank one for the Lakers. This made a 11-6 quarter with the Cards having a decisive advantage all around.

The Lakers quickly caught up in the second quarter as Emsch and Smith hit baskets and Tipps got the first of his ten baskets. The Cards went ahead again 13-12 on Hamburg's basket, but Tipps hit the loop twice more and Smith dropped in a free throw to put the Lakers in front 17-13. The score at the half saw Crystal Lake leading 21-17.

During the third period the Lakers made nine points to the Cards' three which stretched their advantage to 30-20 at the start of the final quarter. In the last period the Arlingtoners fought with all they had but the shooting of Tipps was too much for them, as he amassed nine points, mostly on his long one-hand shots from the corner of the key. A final score gave the Lakers a 44-30 victory over the defeated Cards.

All in all it was the shooting of Tipps and Smith, who made thirty-one points combined, and the defensive rebounding by Cowan which gave the Lakers victory. Uga, point man for Arlington was Becker with eleven while Coleman sank nine.

The Tornadoes lost their eighth conference game, 24-19. They led at the quarter 4-2 on Luenrings two baskets. At half time Crystal Lake had taken the lead 11-6. On Uga's point man for Arlington was Becker with eleven while Coleman sank nine.

McHenry sets last pace

McHenry cagers are setting a fast pace and may cut a figure in the coming district and regional tournaments. Coach Gerald Reed's five won two outstanding victories last week. On Tuesday they overwhelmed Antioch 70-45 and on Friday beat Judson & Co. of Hebron 42-41 in an overtime with their own star, Joe Jackson, getting 20 points.

Niles takes undisputed championship

Libertyville falls hard but wins preliminary

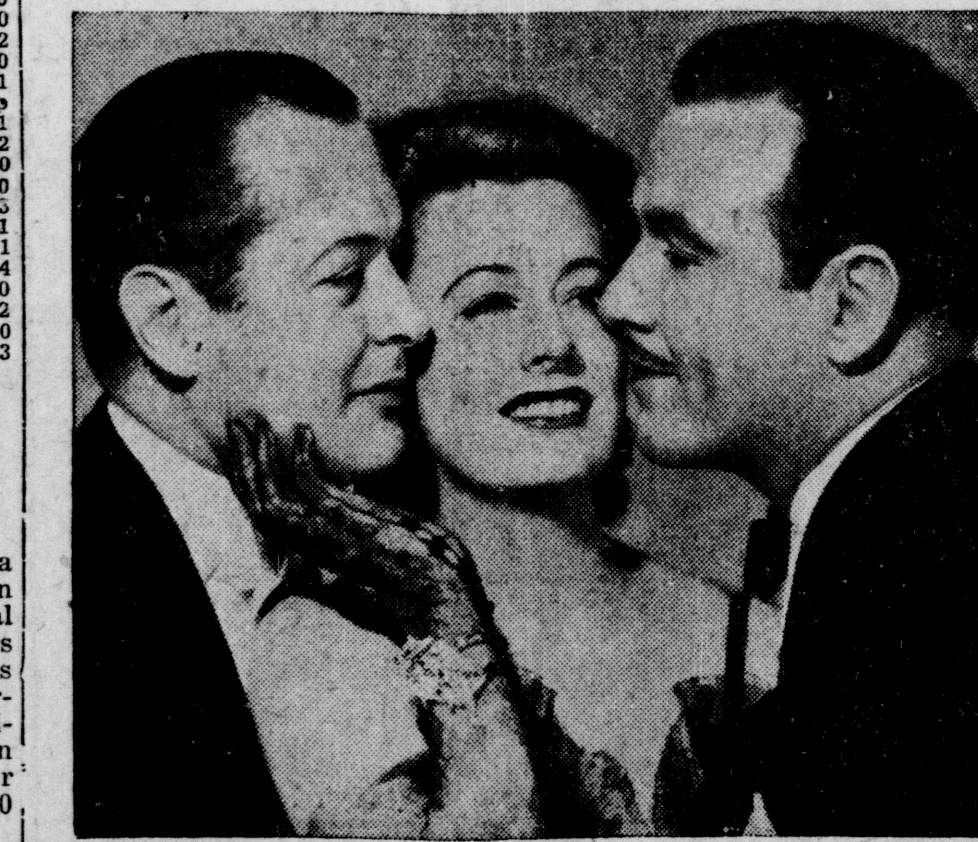

Last Friday was championship night at the Libertyville high school gym. The undefeated Niles Trojans ran up a 51-25 score on second place Libertyville for their eleventh league victory and clinched an undisputed title. Libertyville's junior varsity team beat Niles 29-22 to keep their record clean in 10 games and also gain an undisputed championship.

Podraza, conference leading scorer, added 21 points to his season's total with a great exhibition. Huffman scored over half of Libertyville's total with 13 counters. Niles had on Tuesday drubbed Leyden 58-39.

Palatine meets Wauconda in district

B'ville opens vs. Riverside; Cards go to regional Palatine will meet Wauconda, Barrington will oppose St. Mary's of Des Plaines, and Northbrook tackles Warren in the opening round of the Waukegan district tournament next Wednesday night. Ela of Lake Zurich drew a first round bye and will meet the Warren-Northbrook winner in the Thursday night semi-finals. The finals will be played Friday and both finalists will compete in the Waukegan regional meet the following week.

Bensenville is scheduled to meet Riverside-Brookfield on Tuesday in the opening night of play in the Glenbard district tournament. Glenbard and Lemont are in the same bracketing as the Bisons.

Grant will compete in the Hebron district tourney, opposing Richmond in the first round. Antioch is the only Northwest team going direct to a regional tournament and they meet Dundee in the opener.

The only Northeast conference schools playing in district tournaments are Warren at Wauconda and Leyden who meets Immaculate Conception of Elmhurst in the opening round at Glenbard.

On Tuesday, March 4, the regional tournaments will get under way. Arlington Heights meets the runner up of the Hebron district in the first round at Dundee. This is expected to be either Hebron or McHenry. Dundee plays Antioch in the same bracket. These games are on Wednesday. The Tuesday games in the upper bracket find Elgin vs. Crystal Lake and Woodstock vs. the Hebron district winner.

Niles is rated as the number one team of the Waukegan regional while Waukegan is seeded second and placed in the opposite bracket. The tournament schedules at Waukegan are as follows:

No Date on Egg
Several years ago Muriel Bixby of Marshalltown, Iowa, amused herself by writing her name and address on an egg in a crate at a farm produce store. A few days ago she received a letter from a woman in Three Rivers, Mass. The woman wanted Muriel to know how much she enjoyed eating her "fresh country eggs from Iowa."

Don't Boil

Don't boil your milk when a recipe calls for hot milk, as for instance in the preparation of custards, scald the milk in the top of a double boiler.

Smith-Dawsons in double win

The Smith & Dawson heavies won a well earned victory Thursday, when they defeated St. Peter's of Glenview at Arlington, by a score of 32-31.

There was only one or two point margin throughout the game. Smith & Dawson won by making one more free throw than Glenview. Both teams sank twelve field goals while Smith & Dawson made eight of ten charities. Glenview missed 12 free tosses.

For Glenview, Brown was high scorer with thirteen points while Paul Meyer sank nine. Ed Miller led Smith & Dawson with nine.

In the preliminary Smith & Dawson lights beat Gleason Motors easily by a score of 44-20. Smith & Dawson led by E. Bublit, went on a scoring rampage in the first quarter and coasted to victory.

Bublit was high scorer with twelve, while Bert Ross and Dick Maloney collected eight points each. M. Taylor and Vetter led Gleason Motors with six tallies.

This Thursday, February 19, Smith & Dawson will play two games with River Grove and Riis Park. Both games promise to be plenty exciting as the rival teams each boast a fine record.

Palatine outscores Arlington

Cards fall in sixth straight; Tornadoes win

Palatine continued to hold the upper hand over Arlington in basketball by defeating the Cardinals last week Wednesday 36-21. The Arlington junior varsity played good ball to whip the Palatine lightweights 31-21.

The Pirate's varsity victory was the sixth straight over Arlington covering a period of five years. Palatine has won 11 out of the last 12 from Arlington over a period of nine seasons.

It was in the second and third periods that Palatine took complete command of the situation and played some of their best ball of the year while Arlington got a bad case of jitters which effected their passing and shooting. Palatine's zone held Arlington to five field goals and none were scored in the third quarter while Palatine was tallying seven times from the field. Palatine had a 16-1
